

Crowngate Construction

12th September 2019

To whom it may concern

Crowngate Construction recently completed a building refurbishment at one of our food stores in Rugby.

We found the works to be of a high standard and the management and workforce were very accommodating during a difficult build involving a trading store.

We would be happy to use Crowngate Construction for future projects and would have no problem in recommending them to future clients.

John Wilson

Deputy Property Services Manager

Heart of England Coop